special needs, or any specific restrictions on what may be sent. You may choose a missionary serving with Royal Rangers International if your church does not support a missionary.

4. Volunteer for at least three hours at a local support ministry such as a soup kitchen, homeless shelter, or food pantry. Talk about your experience and what you learned in a patrol meeting.
5. Set a Speed the Light/Royal Rangers Christmas Project fundraising goal with your patrol under the guidance of your Royal Rangers leader and parents. Plan as a patrol how you will raise the funds and achieve this goal.
6. Talk to your family about ways you all can be involved in missions including prayerful consideration of a family faith promise, participation in a missions trip (U.S. or abroad), sending care packages to missionaries, etc.
